

ARIZONA CENTER FOR EMOTIONALLY FOCUSED THERAPY

proudly presents

EFT: What's Sex Got To Do With It?

with Lisa Gold, PhD, LPC

Certified EFT Supervisor in Arizona

Wondering how you could better address sexual issues into your EFT work? Wish you had more concrete examples of weaving physical intimacy into the EFT model? Come join Dr. Lisa Gold's virtual community workshop! She will guide us in improving our conceptual understanding and share interventions to help our couples resolve sexual issues and improve their intimacy!

Objectives: (1) Apply EFT steps, stages, and interventions to resolve sexual issues improve couple intimacy, and (2) Discuss effective integration of sensory experience and the physical body, as part of the EFT cycle.

Date: Saturday, October 24, 2020

Time: 9:30 - 10:00am Virtual Networking (optional)

10:00am - 12:00pm Virtual Community Workshop

Location: Virtual Zoom Meeting (link will be provided before event)

Cost: $15 for AZEFT Members

$20 for Non-Members

Lisa Gold, PhD, LPC has been practicing for over 20 years. Her work on couple relationships and EFT supervision has been published in professional journals, and she has presented her work on EFT and infidelity at national and international conferences (AAMFT and ICEEFT). She is Arizona's only EFT Certified Therapist who is also a AASECT Certified Sex Therapist. She is also an EFT Certified Supervisor.

Register at www.AZEFT.com